THE PALACE,
BANGALORE.

25. 1. 17

My dear Sir,

Here is another note from our mutual friend! His Highness has asked me to send it on by you. So that you may know what reply for him.

Yours Sincerely
Morgan Dr. Smail

R. H. Campbell Esq.
C. I. E.

THE PALACE,
BANGALORE.

Note to His Highness

I am sorry to trouble your Highness with more papers at this late hour — but there is no alternative.

I hope your Highness will allow me to say in this connection that if I can serve your Highness better by going on leave for the present — and elsewhere afterwards — I shall do so most willingly, for

Ne quæ ibi Ne Sacrificia I make for yr Highness. Ne quæ ibi will I may failing of Satisfaction. Ne Strawes Vaults an all made against-me — , I am perfectly willing to get out of his way, for I am above every Mens, and Envies to serve your Highness — it does not matter how low I when I do it.
